

VACATION RENTALS

It's no secret that people from around the globe travel to the inspired location of California's Coachella Valley. With good reason. Offering nearly year-round sunshine and temperate climates, paired with a wealth of recreational activities, the Coachella Valley is a one-of-a-kind destination. La Quinta Resort Leasing is at your service to deliver a vacation experience without equal. From championship golf, tennis and top quality spa services to swimming, sight-seeing and sun-bathing, you'll find it all in beautiful La Quinta, California. Whether you're seeking daily, weekly or monthly getaways, our team will help you turn your vision into a delightful getaway.

We feature vacation rental properties located around The La Quinta Resort & Club and PGA West offering a diverse portfolio of private residences ranging from one bedroom condominiums to five-bedroom estate style homes.

Our team of dedicated professionals seamlessly manages all aspects of the vacation rental process, including housekeeping service and maintenance. In fact, our “home away from home” setting offers so much luxury and comfort, year after year our guests return to reserve the same properties. The key to our success? Simple. We believe it’s understanding the needs of both the owner and the guest, which helps us ensure that everyone is happy. You’ll find we keep our properties spotless, expertly maintained and outfitted with beautifully selected furnishings and accessories. La Quinta Resort Leasing has established hotel standard housekeeping and maintenance for all our properties, working closely and loyally with reliable, competent vendors.

La Quinta Resort Leasing homes are turn-key ready for you with linens, towels, fully equipped kitchens and fine hotel quality amenities. Each home has a set of shampoos, soaps and paper products to get you started. Even more, free high speed internet is provided with our luxury vacation rentals.

To experience everything La Quinta Resort Leasing has to offer, including our extraordinary luxury amenities and services, contact us at 800.388.1926. And launch your long-awaited vacation today.